Cohen's Grandest Fall Opening Carpets: Rugs and Draperies.

Forty years' experience in catering to the wants of the Richmond public is the power behind Cohen's carpet business. Every season is rich in the compensation of new and increased business. Our preparations this year are on a greater and grander scale than ever before. Our buyers were the first on the ground when, in May, the world's greatest carpet mills opened their display of this year's newest carpet and rug patterns. We leave you to say whether our selections meet with your approval.

As to Prices: Following our usual plan, we closed our contracts in time to get every cent's worth of discount possibly by buying for
